CBRE has become an agent of Hi Piotrkowska

The international consulting company CBRE has become a co-leading agent of a new investment of the Master Management Group. The Hi Piotrkowska project is a multifunctional office and service complex in the very heart of Lodz. It is a combination of two office buildings with service space and the Hampton by Hilton hotel. It is expected that the construction will be completed in March 2020.

Hi Piotrkowska is a very flexible complex of buildings. The unique feature of the project is the fact that the first 20-storey building will be the tallest tower in the city. The second office building will have 5 floors and will adjoin the frontage of Piotrkowska Street. In total, 21,000 sq m of A+ office space will be delivered. There will be serviced offices, fitness center, cafe, restaurants, pharmacy, bakery and the first branch of PKO Bank Polski in the buildings. The high standard 7-storey Hampton by Hilton hotel will have a restaurant and 149 guest rooms.

The location in the very center of Lodz guarantees the users of the complex comfortable use of the extensive public transport and cycling networks. The uniqueness of this address is also emphasized by the direct vicinity of Piotrkowska Street, which is the longest shopping promenade in Europe.

*- New investments both in service, residential and infrastructure sectors that appear in Lodz are increasingly strengthening the awareness of the region among investors. The agglomeration of over a million residents located between the intersection of motorways and expressways acts on the imagination of investors who are considering Lodz in terms of relocation for their business or opening another branch - says Kamil Tyszkiewicz, Head of CBRE Regional Markets.
